Children are encouraged to build on what they have learned and to perform simple melodies individually and in unison. Musical terms are reinforced and they begin to link simple musical notation to the work they are doing in class.	Children will work with a specialist music teacher. They learn to perform simple melodies and harmonise these. Children will have the opportunity to perform different rhythms at the same time and use simple notation and un-tuned musical instruments.	Now, the children are more confident musicians and they have learned some simple improvisation. They learn to perform simple melodies and harmonise these. Class teachers are invited to listen to them perform
