1. The kinds of special educational needs for which provision is made at the school.	Children and young people's SEND are generally thought of in the following four broad areas of need: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Cognition and Learning• Communication and Interaction• Social, Emotional and Mental Health• Physical and Sensory We currently provide support for children within all four areas. We have a dedicated staff who have experience of supporting children with a wide range of needs including; Autistic Spectrum Condition (ASC), Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Sensory Processing Difficulties (SPD), Speech and language difficulties, Specific learning difficulties including Dyslexia, Hearing and Visual Impairments and a range of social and emotional difficulties. In addition to our staff support we also work closely with a range of outside agencies from education, health and social services to support the wide range of special educational needs. A variety of evidence based learning interventions are currently used to support pupils such as Precision teaching, Fast Track Read, Write Inc phonics, IDL Cloud, Lego Therapy, Wellcom, Socially Speaking, Time to Talk, 1:1 Counselling delivered by trained therapists.
2. Information about the	Through our thorough assessment and review policies within school we aim to identify any special educational needs a child may have as early as possible. We can

school's policies for the identification and assessment of pupils with special educational needs.	then work with parents/ carers and the child to follow the graduated approach to plan for and monitor a child's progress in the areas of need identified. Ongoing informal teacher assessment together with formal assessments (NFER Tests) inform termly pupil progress meetings. Here members of the Leadership Team along with the class teacher identify pupils who are making slow or less than expected progress. The first response to this concern is to provide targeted high quality teaching by the class teacher and possibly additional intervention or targeted support for a period of time. Parents/ Carers will be informed and a Monitoring sheet detailing the concern, the plan of action and a review date will be shared. A pupil's response to such targeted support will be closely monitored by class teacher, Intervention Manager and SENCO. If it is assessed that continuous, ongoing, additional support is needed to support progress for the child, they will be added to the school SEN register and will receive ongoing SEN Support. When a pupil is consistently and significantly falling behind normal expectations consideration will be given to the pupils' own individual needs and possible referrals to outside agencies will be discussed with parents / carers and, if appropriate, with the child before being made. Parents/ carers will be informed and the child will be added to the school's SEND Register and will receive ongoing SEN Support. A One Page Profile documenting the support in place and identified desired outcomes will be drawn up with parents/ carers and the child having input into this. Parents may also raise their own concerns about their child. They may do this by having an initial conversation with the class teacher and they can arrange to meet the SENCO to discuss their concerns if required.
3. How we evaluate SEND Provision	(a) how the school evaluates the effectiveness of its provision for such pupils; Provision and interventions are reviewed rigorously within school to ensure their effectiveness and measure their impact. Learning walks inform the SENCO and Leadership Team of the quality of provision on a day to day basis. Several times a year books are scrutinised by the Senior Leadership Team and Curriculum Subject Leads to moderate the impact of interventions and planned learning tasks upon the progress children, including those with SEND, make. (b) the school's arrangements for assessing and reviewing the progress of pupils with special educational needs; Underpinning ALL our provision in school is the graduated approach cycle of Assess, Plan, Do, Review. Pupil Progress meetings provide regular opportunities for the class teachers, members of the Senior Leadership Team including the SENCO and Intervention Manager to review progress. Pupils working significantly below Age Related Expectations in reading, writing and maths will have their progress measured in small steps using PIVATS.

Learning Walks and Classroom observations also provide opportunities for further evaluation and guidance. Individual pupils One Page Profiles (SEN Support Plans) are reviewed with parents, staff and pupils each term. Teachers assess whether the desired outcomes set have been achieved or not at that point in time. Any necessary adjustments to provision are planned and implemented.

(c) the school's approach to teaching pupils with special educational needs;

We are an inclusive school and strive to ensure that children with SEND are able to engage in all activities that are available to children who do not have SEND by making reasonable adjustments to the curriculum and the school environment. Close communication with parents/ carers takes place to ensure they are aware of, and have input into, any reasonable adjustments made for their child.

(d) how the school adapts the curriculum and learning environment for pupils with special educational needs;

Through high quality teaching our teachers are continuously assessing, adjusting and adapting their teaching to support all pupils, including those with SEND, whilst also maintaining high expectations for all. Adaptions to the curriculum can take the form of scaffolding in various ways e.g. writing templates, levels of prompting and guidance provided by the teacher or TA, alternative ways of recording and additional resources available to the child. Targeted intervention may take place where a group of children work separately with either the teacher or teaching assistant. The learning environment can be adapted for children where this is deemed necessary through external advice provided or at school level, this can include for instance; the use of visuals, resources such as ear defenders or a child having their own workstation.

e) additional support for learning that is available to pupils with special educational needs;

The school budget has an allocation for SEND. The Governing Body ensures that resources are allocated to support appropriate provision for all pupils requiring it, and in meeting the objectives set out in the school SEND policy.

High Needs Funding or an Education Health Care Assessment is available on application from the Local Authority. These things are requested for pupils who have the most significant needs and require a high level of support to enable them to access mainstream provision successfully.

(f) how the school enables pupils with special educational needs to engage in the activities of the school (including physical activities) together with children who do not have special educational needs;

We are committed to giving all our children every opportunity to achieve their potential and develop as well-rounded individuals. We have a whole school

	approach to inclusion which supports all learners engaging in activities together. Any barriers to learning or engagement in the wider curriculum are reviewed with discussions about how to overcome these. We always endeavour to make reasonable adjustments so that all learners can join in with activities regardless of their needs. (g) support that is available for improving the emotional, mental and social development of pupils with special educational needs. We recognise that some children have extra emotional and social needs that need to be developed and nurtured. These needs can manifest themselves in a number of ways, including behavioural difficulties, anxiousness, and struggling to communicate effectively. At St. John's we use recommendations from the PSHE Association and Jigsaw program which includes emotional literacy and social skills. Our SENCO has gained the Mental Health First Aid Certificate. Miss D. Penny is our schools Mental Health Lead. Any staff member can raise their concerns regarding a child's mental health with the SENCO or Mental Health Lead. Our Mental Health Lead can provide 1:1 and small group support for individual pupils who may have particular needs. Where a child requires further, more specialised support, a referral to outreach services such as Seedlings, Brighter Horizons Counselling Service, The Child and Adolescent Mental Health Service (CAMHS), The Mental Health Support Team, Schools Family Support Service and Outreach Support Service for Mainstream Education (OSSME) or the ADHD Foundation can be made in consultation with parents/carers.
